COMMENT FOR GRADUATION CEREMONY

At the graduation ceremony, a short approximately 15 second comment is read for each graduating student. You must supply your own comment. Suggestions as to what you might include in your comment and sample comments are shown below. Clearly PRINT the name by which you wish to be recognized at the ceremony, e.g. 'Kenny Smith' or 'Kenneth Smith' or 'Kenneth Jeffrey Smith'.

My name as it will be read at the ceremony:

Note: Comments may be edited for length or content. Administration reserves the right to alter comments to comply with the formal nature of the ceremony. Suggestions for comments:

- club or team involvement in grades 11 and 12
- special hobbies, pass-times, or interests
- achievements, awards
- future plans
- someone you may want to recognize teacher/coach/parent

EXAMPLES:

1. David was a member of the Senior Boys Basketball team and was manager of the Volleyball team. He was a Leadership student throughout his high school years. John is looking forward to completing a degree in Physical Education at the University of Victoria.
2. Emily won a music award last year and plans to make use of her business skills in her new job. One of her fondest memories is of her work on the school yearbook.
